

2022 CALS Safety Training Calendar

January

- Hazard Communication for all employees who work with chemicals
- Lockout/Tagout (LOTO) Authorized Employees for personnel that repair, inspect, adjust, install, service, or clean machinery

February

- Bloodborne Pathogens for employees who are anticipated to have occupational exposure to blood other potentially infectious materials (PIM)

March

- Hearing Conservation for employees enrolled in the hearing conservation program
- Fall Protection for personnel who utilize elevated work surfaces

April

- Workers Protection Standard Training (WPS) required for personnel that are defined as "Workers" and "Handlers"
- Respirator Training & Fit testing for personnel required to wear respirators as a part of their job. Note: voluntary respirator users have different requirements

May

- Utility Type Vehicle (UTV)/Industrial Truck (Fork truck) Operation for personnel utilizing UTV's, skid steers, aerial lifts, and forktrucks, each driver must be evaluated every 3rd year
- Spill Prevention, Control, and Countermeasure (SPCC) annual training for ARS site personnel that have an established SPCC plans and handle material containing oil

June

- Heat Stress Management for employees working outdoors as a regular part of their job
- Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) for personnel that utilize PPE as part of their job

July

- Job Hazard Analysis (JHA's) annual training and review of JHA's for all personnel

August

- Emergency Response Plan Awareness annual review by all personnel

September

- Ergonomics / Safe Lifting review of how the science of designing and arranging materials so personnel can use them easily and safely

October

- Cold Stress Management for employees working outdoors as a regular part of their job

November

- Hand & Power Tools, Hot Work Permits for personnel that utilize tools and hot work (welding, grinding, torching, etc.) as part of their job duties

December

- Verify that all annual training is complete and documented

2023 Calendar will be developed when a Safety Coordinator is hired. Please contact Doug Sabatke with questions. 10/27/22.